

DAILY NEWSLETTER

TUESDAY MARCH 03, 2025

ISSUES #8

Click on Image or
Headline to read.

POPE FRANCIS BATTLING SEVERE BREATHING CRISIS

Pope Francis is back on ventilation after suffering severe breathing issues. The Vatican says his pneumonia battle continues, with his prognosis uncertain.

FORMER PRESIDENT OBASANJO CELEBRATES 88TH BIRTHDAY

Former President Olusegun Obasanjo marked his 88th birthday in Lagos with top politicians, business moguls, and royal guests in a grand celebration. Here is the story and photo of the events at exotic The Delborough Hotel, Victoria Island, Lagos on Monday.

Petrol Prices to Keep Falling Until June – Bismarck Rewane

Bismarck Rewane predicts that fuel prices will keep dropping until June 2025. Dangote Refinery and NNPC are in a price war, benefiting Nigerian consumers.

₦250BN BUDGET APPROVED FOR SOUTH EAST DEVELOPMENT

The House Committee on SEDC has approved a ₦250bn budget to tackle infrastructure decay and unemployment in the South East, marking a new era of development.

FULANI MILITIA ABDUCT CATHOLIC PRIEST

Gunmen, believed to be Fulani militia, have kidnapped a Catholic priest and a seminarian from St. Peter Catholic Church in Iviukwa Community, Etsako East Local Government Area of Edo State.

3,500+ news articles waiting for you.

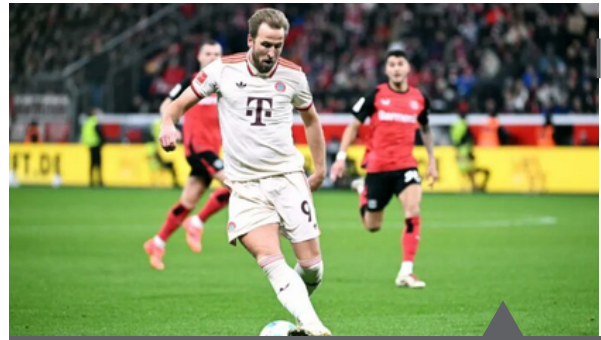

IJAW NATIONAL CONGRESS OPPOSE IMPEACHMENT OF GOVERNOR FUBARA

The Ijaw National Congress (INC) has vowed to resist any attempt to remove Rivers Governor Siminalayi Fubara, warning of serious consequences for national stability.

“BRAVE NEW WORLD” FILM RAKES IN ₦300M

Captain America's "Brave New World" grossed nearly ₦300 million in Nigeria in just three weeks. Here is how the movie is faring both domestically and globally.

UEFA CHAMPIONS LEAGUE: BAYERN VS LEVERKUSEN SET TO CLASH ON WEDNESDAY

Bayern Munich are determined to prove critics wrong in its upcoming Wednesday's Champions League match against Bayer Leverkusen. Learn more about their preparation and motivation.

FG Approves 11 New Private Universities

The Nigerian government has approved 11 new private universities, expanding higher education opportunities. See the institutions approved and their states.

ECOWAS MOVES CLOSER TO SINGLE ECO CURRENCY

ECOWAS is moving forward with plans to launch the "Eco" currency by 2027 to strengthen West Africa's economy, attract investment, and boost trade among member states. Do you think 2027 is feasible, and is it a priority idea, given the economic and developmental challenges in the subregion?

KIDNAPPED STUDENT DIES IN CAPTIVITY DESPITE RANSOM PAYMENT

A 21-year-old student of Federal University Gusau, Zarah Shehu, died in captivity despite her family paying ₦10m ransom and meeting kidnappers' demands.

OPINION: “THE TRUMP-VANCE APPROACH TO ZELENSKY.....”

Opinion: "The Trump-Vance Approach to Zelensky and the Emergence of a New World Order" By Magnus Onyibe. This opinion piece explores the changing dynamics and the high stakes involved.

3,500+ news articles waiting for you.

